3,000 SKATERS TRY
ICE ON TIDAL BASIN

Sport May Continue Today and Tomorrow, Weather Forecaster Says.

With the temperature hovering not far above the zero mark, Washingtonians again yesterday and last night had an opportunity to skate on the frozen tidal basin in Potomac Park.

From early in the morning until 10 o'clock last night the basin was thronged with merry skaters. Every circle of social life in the capital was represented, from the humblest newsboy, with his old-fashioned "hand-me-down" skates, to members of the diplomatic and governmental services. Members of the diplomatic corps who hale from northern latitudes today in the environment. Stately matrons with the more active of the "younger set," and the laughter of the skaters mingled with the metallic ring of the steel runners.

At one time yesterday afternoon more than 3,000 skaters were on the ice. Last night it was estimated that upward of 2,000 persons enjoyed the sport.

The skating concession at the tidal basin is in the hands of L. G. Leech, who is assisted by his brother, Sidney W. Leech, and manager. They have provided more than 2,000 pairs of skates, which they rent for 50 cents, requiring first a deposit of $2, which is returned when the skates are handed back. A checking stand has been provided for unnecessary coats, wraps and a lunch counter provides "hot dogs" and other delicacies. Park policemen were on duty yesterday to regulate traffic.

The weather forecaster gave assurance last night that the temperature would remain low today and tomorrow, with a possible cloudy day and flurries of snow. If that prediction holds good, the tidal basin will be in great shape for skating today. The hours of skating are from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

IN MEMORIAM.

DIXIE. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, J. BURTON DIXIE, who departed this life one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

From the world of grief and trouble
To the home of peace and rest
God has taken our dear brother
To the better world beyond.

HIS MOTHER AND SISTERS.

HART. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, HART, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919. Anniversary mass at St. Aloysius church, Monday, January 4, 1920.

May his soul rest in peace.

THE FAMILY.

Dear Willie, whenever I speak your name my eyes will tear as wet.

Oh, Willie, how I loved you,
And how I miss you now,
My heart has been sad and lonely
Ever since you went away.
And it seems a thousand lonely years
Instead of one today.

MOTHER.

KIDWELL. In sad and loving remembrance of our beloved son, RALPH S. KIDWELL, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919, and our dear son, RALPH S. KIDWELL, who died four months ago, December 15, 1919, and dear little ALVA KIDWELL, who left us one year ago, January 10, 1919.

A long, sad year has passed away since last we said farewell. We were parting on a cold winter day, and you had to say before God called you away, but no message to me came; all your calling was in vain. And now, my dear son, you are in heaven, and now two brothers sleep beneath the same earth.

LOVELL MOTHER, MRS. ALICE KIDWELL.

Willie, art gone, but not forgotten.
My eyes will tear as wet.
For as long as there is memory I shall always think of thee.

THEIR LOVING SISTER, GOLDIE KIDWELL.

One year has passed, as time goes on I miss you more.

I did not know the pain you bore, I did not see you die.
I only know you went away and did not say good-bye.
Smiles may meet my face, tears may dim my eyes.
No one knows how my heart aches since my two dear brothers died.

LOVING BROTHER, RALPH S. KIDWELL.

If I had seen you at the last and held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart I would not feel so sad.
Dear are the graves where my brothers are;
Dear is the memory which never shall fade;
Roses wither, leaves fade and die,
Others may forget you, but never shall I.
THEIR BROTHER, ALFRED KIDWELL.

Roy was so loving, kind and good to all who came in contact with him, and so kind to all. That is why we miss him so.
And so do others, too.

SISTER HELEN.

KLOPPER. In memory of HARRY H. KLOPPER, who died thirteen years ago yesterday, January 4, 1919.

HIS WIFE, MOTHER AND FATHER.

FISHER. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son, SAMUEL C. FISHER, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

Smiles may meet my face,
Tears may dim my eyes,
But no one knows how my heart aches since my dear son died.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

LONG. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son, SAMUEL C. LONG, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

Smiles may meet my face,
Tears may dim my eyes,
But no one knows how my heart aches since my dear son died.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

LONG. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son, SAMUEL C. LONG, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

We were not with you when you died.
We know not how you passed away.
But we know how much you loved us today.
When we think how suddenly you passed away.

SISTER FRANCES.

LONG. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son, SAMUEL C. LONG, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

MORRIS. In memory of our husband and father, JAMES HENRY MORRIS, who left us for his eternal home two years ago today, January 4, 1917.

"We mourn for thee, dear father,
But not without outward show,
For thy heart that beat so sincerely
Mourns silently and low."

THE FAMILY.

MYERS. In sad remembrance of our beloved son, LILLIAN MYERS, who departed this life one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, BEATRICE, STEPHEN AND ABRAHAM.

RAY. In sad and loving memory of my dear son, RAY, who departed this life one year ago today, January 4, 1919.

HIS FRIEND, LILLIAN A. BRUGGER.

WALLACE. In sad and loving remembrance of my dear, devoted daughter, BIRDIE JACKSON WALLACE, who died one year ago today, January 4, 1917.

Oh! the memory of that sad hour
When I stood with an aching heart
To see you taken from me
By the cruel hand of death.
The flowers I place upon your grave
Will wither and decay,
But the love for the one who sleeps
Will never fade away.

HER LOVING MOTHER, MRS. SHEPHERD JACKSON.

WATSON. A tribute of love to the memory of my dear daughter, BESSIE WATSON (nee Slack), who departed this life three years ago today, January 4, 1917.

At the bedside of my daughter,
I watched her life ebb away,
I watched her slowly fade and die,
I tried so hard to keep her with me,
But God willed that she should go,
So I yielded to the heavenly call,
Though it has filled my heart with grief,
I watched you, dear Bessie, but little did I know
That on this day three years ago your soul
From this world would go.
She is gone, but was so young and fair;
She slumbers sweetly, but knows no care.
Her life was so full of joy and love,
Her face my mind will always show.
HER LOVING MOTHER, MRS. SHEPHERD JACKSON.
